

LAMiNATE TALKS

LANGUAGE ACQUISITION, MULTILINGUALISM & TEACHING

The LAMiNATE research platform invites you to the LAMiNATE Talks series autumn 2021

All talks take place between 15:15-16:30

On zoom: <https://lu-se.zoom.us/j/61183822915>

Abstracts: <https://laminare.ht.lu.se/events/laminare-talks>

September 21

Peter Indefrey (Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf, Germany & Donders Centre for Cognitive Neuroimaging in Nijmegen)

XXX

October 5

Mikael Novén (Lund University)

The shape of a good learner: brain structure correlates of L2-learning aptitudes

October 19

Annika Andersson (Linnaeus University), Hanna Lindfors (Linnaeus University) & Kristina Hansson (Lund University)

A simple word not understood affects comprehension of a discourse: a study of Arabic speaking pre-schoolers acquiring Swedish as an L2

November 2

Johanna Carlie, Roger Johansson, Jonas Brännström (Lund University)

Listening effort and Swedish as a second language in the classroom

November 23

Jasone Cenoz (University of the Basque Country)

Pedagogical translanguaging and CLIL

November 30

Tina Gunnarsson (Lund University)

Preparing multilingual students to write a text in English L2

December 14

Marie Källkvist (Lund University & Linnaeus University) & Henrik Gyllstad (Lund University)

XXX

Marianne Gullberg, Jonas Granfeldt - LAMiNATE leaders

Maria Graziano, Frida Splendido - LAMiNATE coordinators

For more information: <http://laminare.ht.lu.se/>

Contact: laminare-contact@mail.ht.lu.se

Everyone welcome!

