

LAMiNATE TALKS

LANGUAGE ACQUISITION, MULTILINGUALISM & TEACHING

The LAMiNATE research platform invites you to the LAMiNATE Talks series spring 2021

All talks take place between 15:15-16:30

On zoom: <https://lu-se.zoom.us/j/69753621244>

Abstracts: <https://laminare.ht.lu.se/events/laminare-talks>

February 22

Gerardo Ortega (University of Birmingham)

The role of gesture in the acquisition of a sign language as a second language

March 9

Sergio Rojo (Lund University)

The development of linguistic stereotypes: an experimental set-up

March 23

Henriette Arndt, Jonas Granfeldt & Marianne Gullberg (Lund University)

Capturing language exposure and use with the LANG-TRACK-APP

April 6

Elin Nylander (Lund University)

Individual multilingualism in the non-mainstream English classroom: Work in progress

April 20

Li Wei (University College London)

Translanguaging and Multicompetence

May 4

Luuk Suurmeijer (Saarland University), M. Carmen Parafita Couto (Leiden University), & Marianne Gullberg (Lund University)

Structural and extralinguistic aspects of code-switching: Evidence from Papiamentu-Dutch auditory sentence matching

May 18

Kari Kinn & Marie Lund Stokka (Univeristy of Bergen)

New approaches to Norwegian as a heritage language: Norwegian across the Americas

Everyone welcome!

Marianne Gullberg, Jonas Granfeldt - LAMiNATE leaders
Maria Graziano, Frida Splendido - LAMiNATE coordinators

For more information: <http://laminare.ht.lu.se/>
Contact: laminare-contact@mail.ht.lu.se

